

Biography
Cinnaman

The Amsterdam based Yuri Boselie, alias Cinnaman, is rightfully known as one of the leading Dutch DJs of the moment. At an early age he stepped up behind the decks and his years of experience clearly come to the fore in his eclectic DJ sets.

Cinnaman plays a wide range of styles and is never afraid to mix the known with the unknown. From house to hip-hop, from techno to garage: Cinnaman never hesitates to take risks in his sets and always draws for remarkable combinations and transitions.

By holding residencies at legendary venues Club 11 and Trouw for the last eight years, he can now call Amsterdam-based club De School his home. His eclectic style can also be seen in his variety of guests at De School.

Cinnaman is an all-rounder: not only is he a DJ and a curator, he is also a producer. By releasing music with artists and friends alike such as Tom Trago and Breach, Cinnaman shows that he is one to keep an eye on.
