KITTIES

Suara is an awarded and well respected imprint based in Barcelona run by Spanish DJ/producer Coyu since 2008.

Suara - with 200 releases plus 25 showroom releases and several compilations out now- became one of the most prominent labels in the world of electronic dance music.

Many releases without losing an ounce the quality, because of that Suara has earned the respect from the whole scene. Two years now in a row most charted label at Resident Advisor (2013-2014), #1 on Beatport and in 2014 placed up to 32 tracks on top 100 at the same time.

Releases on the label come from talented stars of the house and techno world scene. To name a few: Adam Beyer, Moby, Pete Tong, Paco Osuna, Mark Knight, Hot Since 82, Richy Ahmed, Alan Fitzpatrick, Patrick Topping, Nick Curly, Technasia, SME, Julian Jeweil, Lee Foss, Edu Imbernon, Andrea Oliva, Dosem, Tube & Berger, Pig & Dan, Noir Andre Lodemann, Carlo Lio, Huxley, Catz n Dogz, Shiba San, Sidney Charles, Jay Lumen, Olivier Giacomotto, Pleasurekraft, Sonny Fodera, Ramiro Lopez, Affkt and many others.

Suara has undoubtedly earned the admiration from the whole dance scene. Not surprising that the likes of Carl Cox, Marco Carola, Seth Troxler, Loco Dice, Maceo Plex, Joris Voorn, The Martinez Brothers, Joseph Capriati or Steve Lawler (to name a few) are supporters of the kitten label.

Suara's secret to success is quite simply: Music full of flavour guaranteed to provide maximum enjoyment on the dance floor, brought to you by some of the most innovative artists of the dance music world.

KITTIES WANNA DANCE

'The Big Cat' - Catalan DJ/producer better known internationally as COYU is the priest of the Suara temple of house and techno, which is without doubt one of the most prominent imprints in the worldwide electronic music scene, having reached #1 on both Beatport and Resident Advisor.

Following a flurry of great remixes for the likes of Fatboy Slim (Skint), Joseph Capriati (Drumcode), Pete Tong & John Monkman (Suara), MOBY & Skylar Grey (Little Idiot), Green Velvet (Circus) to name a few, he is continuing to release equally groovy original tracks such as "The Cat" (Hot Creations), "Apparition" (Noir), "Profound Pleasure" (Defected) or the already classics "Balls" and "Y.E.A.H.", both released on his beloved Suara. Since his worldwide 'hit' "El Baile Alemán" (Liebe Detail, 2009) Coyu has released on many labels such as Get Physical, Bedrock, Cocoon, Saved, Rejected, Dynamic, Innervisions, Soma, Rebirth or Systematic.

The worldwide clubbing music scene has surrendered to Coyu's performances. He has fans from every corner of the globe, playing at venues and festivals such as Sónar, Piknic Electronik, Supersonic (India), Ultra Music Festival, Boiler Room, Ministry Of Sound and many more. And of course, Ibiza! After a highly successful residency at Pacha (Insane), in the last two years he has run a successful Suara weekly residency at Boom in 2014 and Sankeys in 2015.

Coyu, a 'Cat King' on a lifelong learning.

BOOOM
IBIZA

Coyu has presented these last two years a weekly residency on the island of Ibiza. Respectively at Booom (2014) and Sankeys (2015). With the now famous slogan "Kitties Wanna Dance", Coyu and his kittens brought out to the Ibizan nightlife impressive sets with the best dancing beats for a dedicated crowd. Suara is family!

Great artists such as Kevin Saunderson, Kenny Larkin, Gui Boratto, Olivier Giacomotto, Lee Curtiss, Tiefschwarz, Agoria, Christian Smith, Umek, Mark Knight -plus many more- joined to the Suara's gorgeous line-up.

Coyu has been bringing also his purrfect techno & house stuff to lot of the others biggest clubs in the island. To name a few: Space (Carl Cox's 'Music Is Revolution' & Toolroom Knights), Pachá (Insane), Amnesia, Blue Marlin, etc.

RELEASES

BY COYU

Label
Head
Coyu

How did Suara start?

I wanted to keep my other label A Typical Form underground and try and do bigger more eclectic stuff with Suara. We have released almost everything in the underground spectrum. We even released some indie pop style stuff. Eventually Suara became so big I closed A Typical Form as I wanted to concentrate on doing one thing at a time.

Suara was the most charted non-IDM imprint on Beatport last year. Has the success surprised you?

Yes, especially as we're run out of Barcelona. We don't have all the radio shows and magazines and industry around us in the same way as you do in London and Berlin. It's more difficult, and we do everything ourselves.

What do all the releases have in common?

We release music for the dancefloor. Whether it's house, deep house or techno, it all has that dancefloor feeling.

All of the releases have pictures of cats on their sleeves. Where does that come from?

My girlfriend is a feline vet. Before I was more of a dog person, but now I love cats. We have an amazing designer called Gaks who hand-paints all of the artwork. We have a store online selling Suara clothing and think fashion could become a really big thing for us. We've actually set up a foundation helping to reform street cats in Spain with profits from the releases.

What does the future hold for Suara?

We want to keep growing and releasing quality music. We put on parties everywhere from Peru to South America I want Suara to become an industry leader like Cocoon or Glast. Physique. We're also going to start a sub-label called Feline which will do a similar thing to what A Typical Form used to do. December's City Cats Release Part 2 is not new on Suara

"This is when Gaks started to design cat sleeves for Suara"

COYU & EDU IMBERNON
'BEAUTIFUL STORY'
"Not our biggest-selling release but, the most emotional track I ever made with it!"

VVAA 'KITTIES

"We've released Pig & Dan, Siney Charles, but Suara 82 and Hurley on our KAD comes!"

ZOE XENIA 'YOU

"The Cats & Dogs remix still sounds fresh. I love it!"

MARTIN PATINO
'HONMAGE A

"Not a record for the club but extremely beautiful!"

DOSEM 'REPLICANTS'
"Dosem is an important artist for Suara and the Edu & Coyu remix is already a classic"

TUBE & BERGER

"Impress Of Pleasure" was one of the tracks that put the kitties on the map!"

TECHNASIA
'I AM SOMEWHERE'
"Another very bright, I know many DJ's who still play it!"

Feline good

How did Suara's cat-adorned releases find their way into the record bags of dance music's great and good?

ASK ANYONE to name the biggest underground house and techno labels in the world and the same names will probably keep cropping up: Cocoon, Crosstown Rebels, Get Physical. But in the last few years a new imprint has been stealthily rising through the ranks. Suara is the brainchild of Spanish DJ Coyu and, in seven short years, it has become one of the hottest new labels on the planet. Launched in 2008, Suara was initially set up as an eclectic counterpart to his more straightforward roster label, A Typical Form. But with releases from the likes of Uner, Edu Imbernon and Aen Fitzpatrick, Suara quickly became Coyu's main concern. The label specialises in the kind of driving, groove-inflected tech-house that has been inescapable in the world's clubs over the past few years, and has an impressive roster that includes Luffwuff & Kody Dosem and Pimpus. Its tracks are frequently picked up by the likes of Marco Canalo, Loco Dice and Laurent Garnier, and in 2014 the label clocked in as Beatport's second-highest charting non-IDM imprint. We caught up with label boss Coyu to find out the secret of Suara's huge success.

TOPDEEJAYS ANALYSIS

Topdeejays.com is the biggest organised global DJ database in existence. The site rates general social media influence by combining Facebook, Twitter, Google+, SoundCloud, MySpace, Last.fm and YouTube numbers. These are weighted and combined to form a unique measurement – TDJ points – for each artist

Island impact

The TDJ crew look at a year in social media for ten Ibiza DJs

Coyu

WITH IBIZA SEASON already underway, we took a look at how DJs who play on the island have grown since last season. We picked a sample of 10 DJs with big gigs in Ibiza this year and last, and compared the growth of their Facebook, Twitter and SoundCloud numbers.

The winner on Facebook is Coyu, whose numbers have grown a whopping 63 per cent since the last Ibiza season. After debuting his residency in the now defunct BoOm, he's moved to Sankaya, where this year he will host label nights on Fridays all summer. The Spaniard's popularity is also growing due to working with Slovenian tech-house don UMEK. We asked Joanne Pagès, Coyu's manager, to explain the positive trend: "Sometimes you don't need any strategy to raise the figures on social media, it's enough that you're being yourself. Coyu is a modest guy from Barcelona who runs Suazo Foundation to help stranded cats. Add his music, his work and his love for everything he does and you get good results."

The effort is also obvious on Twitter, where the Big Cat ranks only under Ibiza phenomenon Solomun, who's had a 60 per cent growth in followers due to his impact on the island (and the fact he only started his account last year).

The medal for best multi-channel effort goes to Egyptian trance duo Aly & Fila, who rank in the Top 3 in every category, and this month's Mixmag cover star Adam Beyer who landed on the fifth spot in every category.

Some DJs were hit hard when Facebook deleted inactive accounts, so many recorded a drop in their annual sum of likes. But a heavy presence on the party island proved a smart investment. The competition in Ibiza clubs is heavy, and whoever manages to move the crowds this year has a chance of becoming the new Solomun.
