

Crush Club Bio

Crush Club is the electro disco-house duo of vocalist TC Milan and producer/multi-instrumentalist Le Chev. In 2022 the powerhouse pairing released "Will I See You Again?", their second release on D4 D4NCE/Defected which made Consequence's Best of the Week: "A yearning dancefloor number that plays to both members' strengths: Vocalist TC Milan flaunts his sly, delicate melodies with an ample amount of longing and desire, while producer Le Chev works through a highly-percussive house beat that keeps the track's momentum at a scintillating high." The duo's recent collaborations include "O Retha" with LP Giobbi, a feature with Purple Disco Machine and remixes for Ava Max, SOFI TUKKER, Sigrid, Kim Petras & Jake Shears. Crush Club's live show captivates audiences, with TC Milan's boundless energetic stage presence channeling the late Freddie Mercury and Le Chev's thumping bass lines commanding a groove. Their uplifting music has been featured extensively in fashion campaigns, video games and TV, with recent synchs including 2021 release "Believer" on the FIFA22 Volta Soundtrack & HBO's Genera+ion, "My Man" in the Queer as Folk 2022 reboot, and "Trust" soundtracking the Tommy Hilfiger FW22 campaign. Crush Club first arrived on the scene with "We Dance" (Another Rhythm Records) in 2018, which BBC1 Radio's Annie Mac instantly named "Hottest Record in The World." A classic in the same celebratory vein as Indeep's "Last Night A DJ Saved My Life," "We Dance" pays homage to the life-affirming and inclusive qualities of the dance floor, a central theme in Crush Club's music: We dance, we make the club our home / We chant all night to free our souls / We dance!
